

WORKING STUDENT (m/f/d)

ASSISTANCE PROJECT DEPARTMENT

WIP Renewable Energies is a company which provides high-level scientific and engineering services within the renewable energy and environment sector. WIP has 30 years experience in Project Research and Innovation, Conference organisation and realisation. Among the activities undertaken by WIP is the conception and development of research and development projects in the field of renewable energies.

For our Project Department Team we are looking for a working student (m/f/d) starting as soon as possible for 20 hours/week in Munich. We can also offer an internship environmental and renewable energy sector up to six month.

JOB DESCRIPTION

- Support mapping of Solar Projects
- Support in renewable energy projects
- Assistance with event organization,
- Correspondence with international partners
- Data Base administration
- Further tasks t.b.d.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Responsible, reliable and motivated to learn
- Customer and service oriented
- Team player
- Excellent English skills; German is a plus
- Good knowledge of MS Office (Word, Excel and PowerPoint)

INTERESTED?

Please send your application by email to
Ms. Patricia Gerlinger | patricia.gerlinger@wip-munich.de

WIP Renewable Energies

Sylvensteinstr. 2

81639 München

+49-89 720 12 735

www.wip-munich.de

www.photovoltaic-conference.de